

ASSESSMENT TRAINING DESIRED RESULTS DEVELOPMENTAL PROFILE (DRDP)

10.1.2018 8:30 AM - 3:30 PM

The format of the DRDP (2015), use of documentation, how to use evidence to rate measures and the importance of inter-rater reliability will be covered in this one day workshop. Time will be spent on touring the DRDP website. This tool can be used with children infant-kindergarten entrance and for children with IEPs.

There are now several views of the tool and the Comprehensive View will be used for the training.

PRESENTER: Mary Owen
Early Childhood Education has been the focus of her professional lifetime. She has enjoyed being an ECSE teacher, ECFE Coordinator, MDE Specialist and now as a trainer of teachers. Her experiences in both metro and rural communities have been a huge benefit when training teachers around the state. In addition to undergraduate degrees in Early Childhood and Special Education, she holds a Master of Science Degree in Supervision and Instructional Leadership. Now as a "semi-retired grandma", she volunteers in a Pre-K class, works part time for two school districts as an early childhood screener, and trains teachers on the assessment tool, Desired Results Developmental Profile.

THIS IS AN APPROVED ASSESSMENT TRAINING (7 HOURS) WHICH IS REQUIRED FOR RENEWAL OF PARENT AWARE CERTIFICATION FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS & CHILD CARE.

Fee: $110 (Includes Lunch)
